Tianyu Ouyang

PhD Candidate in Applied Finance | Macquarie University
tianyu.ouyang@mq.edu.au

Education

Macquarie University Expected July 2029
PhD in Applied Finance
Supervisors: Dr. Cynthia Cai and Prof. Tom Smith

The University of Sydney January 2025
Master of Computer Science

The University of Nottingham June 2022
BSc (Hons) in International Business Economics

Research Interests

Stablecoins, digital finance, and financial regulation.

Working Papers

Financial Stability and Private Digital Money: Peg Resilience of Euro-Denominated Stablecoins during the MiCA Transition
With Cynthia Cai. 2026. Working paper.

Examines the peg stability of EURC and EURA during the MiCA transition. The paper documents the association between stablecoin-specific volatility and peg deviations, and differences in resilience between the two stablecoins.

Publications

Lu, K., Cheng, J., Li, H., and Ouyang, T. (2023). MFAFNet: A Lightweight and Efficient Network with Multi-Level Feature Adaptive Fusion for Real-Time Semantic Segmentation. Sensors, 23(14), 6382.

Scholarships and Awards

Executive Dean's Commendation for Academic Excellence
Year 2 Master of Research, Macquarie University

International Macquarie Research Excellence Scholarship (iMQRES)

Industry Experience

Chang'an Wealth Asset Management Co. Ltd. August - October 2021
Institutional Business Department Intern | Shanghai, China
Compiled annual and interim reports of real estate developers and contributed to company research reports.

The Bank of East Asia (China) June - August 2021
Statements and Taxes Intern | Shanghai, China
Assisted with accounting-system updates and regulatory reporting, including template configuration, launch preparation and monitoring, and post-launch checks.